Seán O’Donnell

Seán (UPG ’02) works for the University of Pittsburgh’s Office of Institutional Advancement (IA) as the stewardship associate for executive communications. There, he is responsible for managing high-level acknowledgment for donors to the University of Pittsburgh from the units of IA and the Medical & Health Sciences Foundation (MHSF), as well as providing copy for a wide range of stewardship programs.

Before coming to Pitt, Seán earned a master’s degree in journalism and mass communications from Point Park University and worked as a copy editor and award-winning reporter for a daily newspaper in Southern Indiana. He also is an accomplished bagpipe player and songwriter, performing regularly around Southwestern Pennsylvania.

In addition to his role with the PAA, Seán serves as an ex-officio member of the Pitt–Greensburg Advisory Board and as the Pitt–Greensburg Alumni Association’s (PGAA) president. He previously served for two years as the PGAA’s Treasurer. He and his wife, Maddie (SIS ’08G), live in Pittsburgh.
