Dr. Brian White is the Superintendent of Schools for the Chartiers Valley School District. Shortly after beginning at Chartiers Valley in August 2010, Dr. White implemented a strategic planning process that engaged the members of the school community and created a new future for the school district. The comprehensive strategic plan focuses on meeting the needs of each individual student.

Prior to Chartiers Valley, Dr. White held several positions at the Beaver Area School District. He began as an assistant principal in 2001. He was then promoted to high school principal and then to middle/ high school principal before advancing to assistant superintendent.

Dr. White began his career with Pittsburgh Public Schools as a teacher, activities director and band/orchestra director at Brashear High School. After that he became an administrative practitioner and then acting assistant principal at Schenley High School.

After graduating from West Virginia University with a bachelor’s degree in music, Dr. White earned both a master’s degree and doctorate degree in education from the University of Pittsburgh. In 2005, Dr. White was named one of Pittsburgh Magazine’s "40 Under 40."
