

S. Jeffrey Kondis, ENGR `77, KGSB `82
President Pitt Alumni Association 2014-2016
Biography

Jeff holds two degrees from the University of Pittsburgh. He graduated in 1977 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Chemical Engineering and later earned his Master of Business Administration from the Joseph M. Katz Graduate School of Business. As an undergraduate he was involved in a number of campus activities. He served as a student manager for the Pitt Football program and was a part of the 1976 National Championship squad. He belonged to the Phi Eta Sigma and Omicron Delta Kappa leadership fraternities and was a member of the Pi Kappa Alpha social fraternity.

Upon graduation from Pitt in 1977, Jeff began his career with PPG Industries and worked in a variety of sales, marketing, corporate development and government affairs positions. He left PPG to join the Corporate Finance practice at Ernest & Young before going to the Watson Standard Company as Director, Corporate Development. He is currently Manager, Corporate Marketing at Pittsburgh-based L.B. Foster Company where he manages the company's various strategic marketing initiatives. L.B. Foster is a 110 year old manufacturer, fabricator and distributor of various products and services for the global rail, construction and energy and utility industries. Kondis has also served as adjunct faculty in the College of Business Administration since 1998.

Jeff has remained active with the University of Pittsburgh as an alumnus. He has served and remains on the Board of Directors of both the Varsity Letter Club and the Katz Graduate School of Business, serving as President of the Varsity Letter Club from 1998-2000 and President of the Katz Graduate School of Business from 2003-2005. He received the Awardee of Distinction from the Varsity Letter Club in 2005, and the H.J. Zoffer Award for Meritorious Service in 1998 and the Distinguished Service Award in 2003 from the Katz Graduate School of Business.

Kondis is an Alumni Association Life Member, and a joint member with his wife, Patricia. He has served on the Pitt Alumni Association Board of Directors in the positions of Secretary and Treasurer as well as chairing the Awards Committee and received the Volunteer Excellence Award in 2006.

Jeff and his wife, Patricia Falkowski Kondis, (A&S `77) have three children and reside in Plum, PA
