

Arnold M. Epstein, J.D., Education, 1969
Officer Director at Large Representative 2016-2018

Arnold Epstein is Managing Partner at Brennan, Robins & Daley, P.C. in Pittsburgh, PA. He earned an undergraduate degree from Pitt in 1969, followed by a J.D. degree from the University of Akron School of Law. His areas of legal practice include litigation, commercial and municipal law, real estate and bankruptcy. He also serves as a Special Arbitrator in Landlord-Tenant issues for Allegheny County, as well as for the Better Business Bureau Auto Line, and the U.S. District Court.

Arnold began his career at Wilkinsburg Junior High School teaching history and social studies for a year. After law school, he served as a managing attorney and department head for six years (1973-79) at Neighborhood Legal Services Association in Pittsburgh, followed by two years as a staff attorney at Weisman, Pass & Schwartz in Pittsburgh. He is a member of the Allegheny County Bar Association and the Pennsylvania Bar Association.

Since 1979, Arnold has been a part-time adjunct instructor in the Administration of Justice & Legal Studies Program at Pitt's Graduate School of Public & International Affairs. He has taught introductory courses on law and legal issues to generations of Pitt students.

Arnold is an enthusiastic life member of Pitt's Alumni Association. He has served in a wide range of capacities, as Board member, leader of the Student Committee, Advocate Representative, Alumni Leadership Council member, Team Pittsburgh member, and now as Board of Directors At Large Representative. He has attended many Pitt Days in Harrisburg, meeting with Pennsylvania legislators to advocate for the University.

Arnold lives in Churchill with his wife, Barbara, also a Pitt alum and Director of Pitt's Health Sciences Library System.

In his free time, Arnold enjoys racquetball, biking, model trains, and reading.
