

Michael A. Bryson

Michael A. Bryson is a retired Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Mellon Financial Corporation where he was a member of the Operating Committee and chaired the Corporation's Finance (Asset/Liability Management) and Pension Investment Committees. He was also responsible for Strategic Planning and Corporate Development. He joined Mellon in 1974.

He currently serves as a Trustee of the University of Pittsburgh where he chairs the Budget Committee and is a member of the Executive, Conflict's of Interest and Compensation Committees. He is also an Emeritus Director and past Treasurer of the University of Pittsburgh Alumni Association. Other Civic activities include serving as a Trustee of the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra and as a Director of WQED Multimedia and Manchester-Bidwell Corporation. He is a member of the Executive Committees and chairs the Finance or Budget Committees for each organization.

Mr. Bryson is a 1968 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh with a B.S. degree, summa cum laude, in mathematics and received an M.B.A. degree from Harvard Business School in 1974. He and his wife, Kathryn, live in Edgeworth, PA and are the parents of four grown children, two of whom are Pitt alumni, Anne (Law'08) and Andrew (GSPIA' 12).