

Biography of Theresa Marie Dupart:

Theresa Dupart is a native Pittsburgher. She is married to Louis Dupart and has two grown sons, Evan and Grant ages 26 and 24 respectively. Theresa attended the University of Pittsburgh School of Nursing for both her undergraduate and graduate degrees. Her BSN was conferred in 1974, her MSN in 1977. She subsequently moved to Washington DC where she practiced nursing for several years including teaching on the graduate level at Catholic University School of Nursing. She received her J.D. from American University in 1985. Following her career as a nurse and attorney, she retired in 1997 to raise her two sons on a full time basis.

Theresa was asked to join the MedStar Washington Hospital Center Board of Directors in 2009. During her tenure she served as Chair for the Risk Management Committee and Governance and Nominating Committee. In 2012 she was elected Vice Chair until November 2014 when she became Chair of the Board of Directors.

Theresa reconnected with the University of Pittsburgh in 2009 to establish a scholarship fund for the Pitt School of Nursing which was endowed in 2011. She served on the School of Nursing Advancement Committee from 2010 until its dissolution. Theresa along with her husband were Gold Sponsors for the Evening with Lou Holtz event in June 2013 which supported the Nancy Glunt Hoffman Endowed Chair in Oncology. She remains interested in both the School of Nursing and the University of Pittsburgh at large as higher education is a personal interest of hers.
